

James Hearty

Education:

University of Colorado Law School
JD May 1998

Legal Experience:

Started with the Department of Justice in 1998 through the Attorney General's Honor Program

October 1998-September 1999

United States Department of Justice
Civil Fraud Section
Washington, DC
Trial Attorney

Represented the United States in qui tam cases involving various types of government fraud brought under the False Claims Act.

September 1999-June 2002

United States Department of Justice
Office of Consumer Litigation
Washington, DC
Trial Attorney

Represented the United States in all aspects of criminal and civil litigation arising out of violations of the Consumer Product Safety Act, Federal Trade Commission Act, Food Drug and Cosmetics Act and other legislation aimed at protecting the consuming public.

July 2002-October 2006

United States Attorney's Office
District of Colorado
Denver, CO
Assistant U.S. Attorney
Criminal Division, Major Crimes Section

October 2006 - present

United States Attorney's Office
District of Colorado
Denver, CO
Assistant U.S. Attorney
Chief, Major Crimes Section

Criminal Division

Personal:

Married, 3 children

Reside in Littleton